Meme No. 136-140

Date:03-11-2021

Subject: Regarding registration of eligible minority students (six notified minority communities, viz. Muslim, Christian, Sikh, Buddhist, Jain, Parsi (Zoroastrian) pursuing professional and technical courses under merit-cum-means-based scholarship scheme on National Scholarship Portal www.scholarship.gov.in.

Apropos of the subject ated above it is requested that applications of eligible minority students studying in educational institution under your jurisdiction be registered under merit-cum-means-based scholarship on the National Scholarship Portal so that students belonging to the minority communities, whose family income is less than Rs.2.50 lakh may get benefited. Dats on the portal indicates that very few students have applied under merit-cum-means-based scholarship scheme. Therefore, paying special attention to this matter, re-double efforts need to be made to get eligible students registered under this scheme.

It has also been seen for the past few years that many students who are eligible under the merit-cum-means scholarship scheme get registered under post merit scholarship scheme for minorities. As a result, they get less scholarship amount. Therefore, guidelines and the list of courses related to merit-cum-means based scheme are being reset to you so that students can apply under the appropriate scheme.
