Title: Soft Skills Showcase: The Model-Making Challenge (23/04/2019)

Report: The Physics Department's Model Making Competition on April 23, 2019, saw enthusiastic participation from 24 students across academic levels, showcasing their creativity and understanding of physics principles. Judged by faculty members, projects were evaluated on scientific accuracy, creativity, and overall grasp of physics concepts. Rajinder Kaur from B.Sc-1st year clinched the first prize, with Nishu (B.Sc-1st year) and Rahul (B.Sc-1st year) securing second and third place respectively. This event not only celebrated individual talents but also fostered collaboration and practical application of physics knowledge. By providing a platform for hands-on exploration, the competition effectively encouraged a deeper understanding and passion for physics among students, highlighting the significance of experiential learning in academic pursuits.

Title: Fostering Soft Skills: Political Science Department's Teej Festival Endeavor - (11/05/2019)

Report: The Teej Festival celebration organized by the Political Science Department on May 11, 2019, provided a conducive environment for the enhancement of soft skills among 72 students. Through active participation in various ceremonies and performances, students had the opportunity to develop interpersonal skills by engaging in meaningful interactions with their peers and faculty members. Furthermore, involvement in the planning and execution of the event enabled students to cultivate leadership and organizational abilities as they coordinated tasks and ensured the smooth functioning of the festivities. Additionally, the creative expression showcased during the event facilitated the development of problem-solving skills and emotional intelligence among the participants. Overall, the Teej Festival celebration served as a valuable platform for students to enhance a range of soft skills essential for their holistic growth and future success.

Title: Developing Soft Skills through Poster Making during Green Diwali Celebrations- 06/10/2018

Report: On October 6, 2018, the Fine Arts Department orchestrated a unique Green Diwali Celebration centered around the art of poster making, engaging 27 students in the endeavor. Departing from conventional festivities, the event encouraged participants to use their artistic skills to create visually compelling posters that conveyed the message of an eco-friendly Diwali. The poster-making initiative not only showcased the creativity of the Fine Arts students but also served as a powerful medium to raise awareness about the environmental impact of Diwali celebrations. The event contributed to fostering a sense of responsibility among the participants, encouraging them to celebrate the festival of lights in an environmentally conscious and sustainable manner.

Title: Developing Soft Skills through Seminar Commemorating of Jallianwala Bagh Massacre-10/04/2019

Report: On April 10, 2019, the Political Science Department paid a heartfelt tribute to the martyrs of the Jallianwala Bagh massacre, involving the active participation of 43 students. The seminar served as a platform to deeply reflect on the historical significance of April 13, 1919, when British forces opened fire on unarmed civilians at Jallianwala Bagh in Amritsar. Through insightful discussions, presentations, and reflections, the students delved into the political and socio-cultural ramifications of this tragic incident, paying homage to the sacrifices made by those who fought for India's independence. The seminar not only commemorated the memory of the martyrs but also fostered a spirit of remembrance, understanding, and dedication to preserving the lessons of history among the participating students.

Title: Cultivating Life Skills through Plantation Drive under "Tandrust Punjab Mission" - 29/08/2018

Report: On August 29, 2018, a collaborative effort between the NCC and the Department of Agriculture led to a significant plantation drive themed "Tandrust Punjab," engaging 48 students. The event aimed to promote environmental sustainability and contribute to the overall well-being of Punjab. This collaborative effort went beyond symbolic gestures as the students actively planted a total of 150 saplings and trees, aligning with the theme focused on fostering a healthy and green state. This joint initiative not only underscored the importance of environmental conservation but also emphasized the synergy between educational institutions and organizations like the NCC in advocating for a sustainable and eco-friendly Punjab. The plantation drive served as a commendable example of how collective efforts can contribute to the larger goal of creating a cleaner and greener environment.

Title: Unifying for a Clean Campus: Life Skills in Action through Gandhi Jayanti Celebration (Swachhata Hi Sewa)- 02/10/2018

Report: On October 2, 2018, a joint effort between the Political Science Department and the National Cadet Corps (NCC) brought forth a meaningful Gandhi Jayanti Celebration under the theme "Swachhata Hi Sewa" (Cleanliness is Service), with active participation from 70 students. The collaborative event aimed to commemorate Mahatma Gandhi's birth anniversary by not only paying tribute to his legacy but also by promoting the values of cleanliness and social service. The students, inspired by Gandhian principles, engaged in various activities such as cleanliness drives and discussions on the significance of Swachhata Hi Sewa. This interdisciplinary collaboration underscored the importance of unity and collective action in fostering civic responsibility and upholding the ideals championed by Mahatma Gandhi.

The competition aimed to raise awareness about the crucial importance of road safety through visual expression. Sapna secured the first position, followed by Yogita Kumari in second place, and Tanu in third. The winning posters not only showcased artistic brilliance but also effectively communicated essential messages about responsible and safe road practices. The significance of the event was underscored by Principal Rajinder Kaur, who graciously awarded the prizes, acknowledging the students' efforts in promoting a critical societal message through the impactful medium of art. The competition served as a meaningful initiative in fostering a sense of responsibility and consciousness regarding road safety within the student community.
