PROOF FOR MECHANISM

Proving the efficacy of feedback mechanisms is pivotal for colleges, particularly with dual offline and online modes. Offline complaint boxes offer a confidential platform for grievances, demanding regular monitoring and transparent processes. Conversely, online feedback portals provide convenience but require robust security and acknowledgment systems. Integrating both modes with oversight committees ensures accountability and credibility.

Anti-Ragging Cell

ANTI RAGGING CELL

Giani Kartar Singh Memorial Government College Tanda has established Anti Ragging Cell in accordance with the directives of the Supreme Court of India and notification issued by the University Grants Commission (UGC). The purpose of this cell is to prevent, stop, and eliminate the practice of ragging, involving any form of verbal or written communication or behaviour that involves teasing, treating any student. Additionally, it aims to address unfair means or undisciplined activities by students, which may cause annoyance, hardship, psychological harm, or instil fear or

6. Peer Support: Creating peer support networks or mentorship programs where students can turn to their peers for guidance and support.

7. Security Measures: Ensuring that there are security measures in place to respond promptly to any incidents and to maintain a safe campus environment.

The students have to submit a declaration against ragging at the time of admission which is laid down in the Prospectus in some detail. There has been no reported case of ragging in the College premises so far since the students remain under the watchful eyes of the authority and members of the Discipline Maintenance Committee during the college hours. Members of Anti-ragging Committee:
