Founder of the College

Giani Kartar Singh Ji (1902-1974)

History of College

G.K.S.M. Govt. College, affiliated to Panjab University, Chandigarh is one of the prestigious, multi-faculty, post graduate educational institutions of the region. It owes its genesis to the relentless efforts of its founder, Giani Kartar Singh after whom this College is named. It was his heart's desire to see an institution of higher education come up at this particular place so that the rural and under-privileged youth of this relatively backward region could get quality education at affordable rates. The persistent efforts of Giani ji and his associates finally bore fruit in 1950 and a college was established in a part of the building of a local high school. The college was shifted to its present vast campus of about 43 acres in 1972, with Giani Kartar Singh donating his entire land for the noble enterprise. Currently the institution is imparting quality education in Arts, Science and Commerce streams.

During more than 7 decades of its existence, the college has always aimed at synthesizing the best of traditional values with the best of modern knowledge while imparting instruction to its students. We strongly believe that education without a strong value system is mere literacy. In its onward march, the college has routinely encountered a number of road blocks like financial constraints, shortage of permanent teaching faculty and the poor economic, social and academic background of the learners. However, the institution has scarcely ever allowed itself to be inundated with these problems. If anything, these limitations have inspired and challenged us to work harder towards our goals. The motto of the college "WILL TO DO", inscribed on the college logo has always been the guiding spirit of the institution. The college has produced a large number of distinguished alumni who have made their alma-mater immensely proud. The list includes Chaudhary Balbir Singh (Former Minister), Shri Gurbachan Jagat (Ex. Chairman UPSC), Shri S.K. Sandhu (IAS), Shri Roshan Lal (IAS), Shri Sukhraj Singh (IPS), Shri Darshan Kumar (IRS), Shri K.P. Singh (Chief Judicial Magistrate) along with a big number of police personnel, teachers, CA's, bank employees, Entrepreneurs etc. The college is no less proud of those of its students who went abroad and have done exceptionally well there. The college continues on its onward journey with grit and determination to shape the destiny of its young learners in the best possible way so that they may contribute to their optimum strength towards the progress and well being of this great nation India.
