Inclusive Policy

- × Non-Discrimination: Inclusive policies of the institution should protect individuals from discrimination based on factors such as race, ethnicity, gender, religion, disability, sexual orientation, and socioeconomic status. Various committees have been formed to make a regular check to ensure that such an incident will never occur.
- × Equal Access: College policies aim to ensure that all individuals have equal access to opportunities, resources, services, and benefits, regardless of their background.
- × Participation: Inclusive policies of our institution encourage the active involvement and participation of diverse groups in decision-making processes and social activities.
- × Accommodation and Accessibility: Institution policies should address barriers and provide accommodations to support the needs of individuals with disabilities or other special requirements.
- × Social and Economic Equity: Inclusive policies of our institution strive to reduce disparities in social and economic outcomes and work towards a more equitable distribution of resources.
- × Education and Awareness: Raising awareness about the importance of inclusion and implementing educational programs can be essential components of inclusive policy.
- × Monitoring and Evaluation: Regular assessment and monitoring of the impact of inclusive policies help identify areas for improvement and ensure accountability.
