DUSTBIN INSTALLATION

DATE- 29th Apr, 2022

ORGANISED BY- Department of Political Science, NSS

NO. OF STUDENTS PARTICIPATED- 20

On April 29, 2022, the Department of Political Science and NSS jointly organized a Dustbin Installation initiative, involving the participation of 20 students. This activity, part of a cleanliness drive, likely focused on installing dustbins in strategic locations to promote responsible waste disposal. Such efforts contribute to fostering a cleaner environment and instilling a sense of civic responsibility among students, emphasizing the importance of maintaining cleanliness on the campus.

On April 29, 2022, the Department of Political Science, in collaboration with NSS, undertook the initiative of installing dustbins.

NCC CAMPS

ORGANISED BY- NCC BATTALION PUNJAB

In the 2021-22 NCC cadets and officers actively engaged in various NCC camps at different levels. Notably, 5 cadets were selected for the Directorate level camp at Ropar. Two cadets, Harpreet Kaur and Ashish Pal Singh, stood out at the Republic Day Camp, showcasing excellence. Additionally, 30 cadets appeared for 'C' certificate and 20 for 'B' certificate examinations, highlighting their commitment to skill development. Participation in CATC events, community development programs with tree planting, and social service activities at both the college campus and Army Ground Tanda reflect the unit's multifaceted contributions.

NCC cadets excelled in camps, achieving Directorate and Republic Day recognition showcasing commitment to skill development and community service.
